COOS COUNTY MOUNTED SHERIFF’S POSSE

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

The Coos County Mounted Sheriff’s Posse has established an excellent opportunity for Coos County high school seniors. It is the Posse’s desire to give students involved in equestrian activities the opportunity to further their education after high school.

2. The Posse’s captain will appoint a scholarship committee consisting of five Posse members to choose the recipients.
3. Scholarships will be awarded on the following criteria:
   a. Recipient must currently be a senior in good standing at any accredited Coos County high school and be planning to attend any fully accredited post-secondary institution following graduation.
   b. Recipient must use the funds for tuition, fees and/or books.
   c. Recipient must currently be enrolled in an acknowledged 4-H club, High School Equestrian team or High School Rodeo.
